

Cross-Cultural Psychology Bulletin

CONTENTS

EDITORIAL

1 Jubilee! The Congress!

The intellectual sophistication of the Silver Jubilee Congress; a new series on theory and methods; library subscriptions and member books.

Bill Gabrenya

ARTICLES

6 Theory & Method: Series Introduction

A series of articles on theoretical and methodological concerns in culture and psychology.

Joan Miller

8 Theory & Method: Culture, Time, and Social Psychology of Cultural Dynamics

An emerging consensus in the development of contrasting views of culture and psychology.

Yoshihisa Kashima

16 Towards Integrative Indigenization: I/O Psychology Research in India

Historical progression of Indian Industrial/Organizational Psychology from a Western to an open indigenous model.

Sunita Singh-Sengupta

22 Where Cross-Culturalists Come From

Review of President Bond's Working at the interface of cultures: Eighteen lives in social science.

Dan Hocoy

About the Cover Photo

Contributed by the editor

A Bunong family in central Taiwan. See page 24 for a related story.

Volume 32 Number 2
June 1998

32 10,000 Abundances

The cover photo is placed in its cultural and historical context; a story about a Buick.

Bill Gabrenya and Ann Lin

IACCP AFFAIRS

4 Memories of Bellingham and Our 14th Congress

Many Words waxes romantic on fragrant pines, salmon, and spirituality.

Michael Bond

36 History: A Long Time Ago in the Cross-Cultural (Social) Psychology Newsletter/Bulletin

The conclusion of Harry Triandis' editorship of the Newsletter; biographical information about John Dawson.

Editor

ANNOUNCEMENTS

38 New Books, Films and Journals

40 Position Openings

41 General Announcements

Renting the "All of us is related..." exhibit; Uwe Gielen's Institute for International and Cross-Cultural Psychology.

42 IACCP Announcements

Constitutional change postal ballot is coming your way.

43 Conferences

INFORUM

31 Omar Khaleefa

Bahrain

37 John Berry

Somewhere in the Caribbean

30 INFORUM response form

Copy this form and send it back to the editor.