

Report of the Associate Treasurer

October 11, 2007 to July 12, 2008

Sharon Glazer, Associate Treasurer
San José State University, CA, USA

Delivered at the 19th Congress of the IACCP
Bremen, Germany, July 30, 2008

Appointment

- Sharon Glazer appointed as Associate Treasurer, October 1, 2007.
- Report is based on data available to Associate Treasurer from about October 2007.

Overview

- Resources of the Association have been quite stable.
- Membership is approximately the same as it was at the Spetses conference; some increases in the number of probationary members.
- Current total equity of the association is $138,908.05.
  - Of this, at least $15,000 is to be dedicated to the Triandis fund.

Membership

- Year of prev Congress (2006): 531 active members
- 2008 so far (July 12): 644 active members
- Multiple dues reminders:
  - Regular mail and email
  - Several returned envelopes; many of these members have been contacted and we have updated their profiles with their current address.

Membership

- Total 922 members
  - 65 countries
  - 644 in good standing
  - 278 probationary members (dues in arrears 1-2 yrs)
- Majority of active members in USA & Europe
  - 254 in USA
  - 236 in Europe
    - 66 in Germany
    - 35 United Kingdom
  - 131 Asia
    - 36 Japan
  - 61 in Canada
  - 42 in Australia, New Zealand & Guam
  - 40 Middle East
  - 30 in Central and South America

Payment Method

- On-Line Payment System through PayPal, began January 27, 2008.
- 40% of renewing or new members have processed their dues on their own through PayPal vs. any other mode of payment.
- About $22,000 of dues were accrued through this form of payment.
- The Office of the Associate Treasurer processed all other payments.
  - 35% credit card payments
  - 25% cash or check payments

Publications

- Of the total expenses for the period, subscriptions to the Journal of Cross-Cultural Psychology (nearly 30%) comprise the major portion.
- Nearly $12,000 was reimbursed or paid out to the Editor of JCCP.
- The Bulletin expenses are about $5000 per issue.
- IACCP also receives royalties from Sage.
  - April 2007: $48,502.41 in Sage royalties
  - April 2008: $50,128.39 in Sage royalties

New Purchases

- $600.00 spent on equipment and material purchases, including Quicken and Filemaker Pro, stamps, envelopes, and postage.

Assistant to the Associate Treasurer

- Since October of 2007, the Assistant to the Associate Treasurer, Caleb Smeraldo, a graduate student in I/O Psychology at San Jose State University, has been a tremendous help.
  - Caleb has been averaging approximately 15 hours per week at a rate of $15 per hour.
  - Since October 2007, Caleb has been paid nearly $3500.00.
-

Funds, Awards, Contributions

- $27,604.04 in dues contributions since October 2007
  - Distributed ~$20,000 in funds
    - 17 received part of these funds through Witkin/Okonji award ($10,000 distributed)
    - $5000.00 distributed for the ARTS program
    - $5000.00 seed money for this congress
    - $500 cash award, up to $1000 travel expenses, 1 year IACCP membership to the Harry and Pola Triandis Dissertation Awardee
-

Donations from SJSU

- Department of Psychology at San Jose State University has paid for all photocopies (totaling app. 2500 sheets), estimated at a cost of $250.
  - SJSU also provides a mailbox for IACCP, and a telephone line at no expense which is used to contact members when needed and to send faxes.
-

Summary

- Overall, IACCP Treasury has seen an increase in membership.
- Funds and savings are growing steadily.
- PayPal has been a helpful mechanism for processing funds and updating membership profiles.
- A great debt of thanks goes to Bill Gabrenya for his pain-staking work on this feature, making it so effortless for all of us who have used it, and for all his incredible support.

Thank you!

sharon.glazer@sjsu.edu

